

Prof. Abdullah A. Al-Mosa
Former President of Saudi Electronic University

BIOGRAPHY

Prof. Abdullah A. Al-Mosa is the former President of Saudi Electronic University. He holds a PhD in curricula and methods of teaching computers, a master's degree in computer science, a master's degree in statistics, research methodologies, and an educational assessment from Ohio University, as well as a master's degree in curricula and methods of teaching from Umm Al-Qura University. He was formerly Vice-President for scholarship affairs with the Ministry of Higher Education, General Supervisor of the general administration for missions and scholarships at the Ministry of Higher Education, and Dean of the College of Computer and Information Sciences at Imam Muhammad ibn Saud Islamic University.

Prof. Abdullah hold various membership positions particularly a member of Saudi Society for Computers, member of Distance Learning Center (the use of computer in education) at Ohio University in America , member of Association of Curricula Development (ASCD) in America and also a member of more than ten online groups specialized in computer and internet.

He is the author of many books such as The Use of Computers in Education, 5th edition, 1430 AH 2, Come To Learn Computer and Internet, a series of books, 1432 (dedicated to preliminary, elementary, and middle schools, taught in more than 5000 schools in KSA, more than of 300000 copies annually, Eighth edition 3, Introduction to Computer and Internet, 7th edition, 1433 AH 4, E-Learning: Foundations and Application, co-author, 1425 AH 5 and finally Come To Learn Computer and Internet; for kids, a series of books, (ICDL) for kids, 1426 AH.